LES JARDINS SUSPENDUS DE
MARQUEYSSAC
BELVÉDÈRE DE LA DORDOGNE

Marqueyssac is one of the most beautiful romantic gardens in France. Today it is the most visited garden in Périgord.

Listed as a national historical monument thanks to its 54 acre park, Marqueyssac's gardens offer more than 6 kilometres of shaded paths, in a maze of 150 000 hand-pruned boxwoods.

From the belvedere, 130 metres above the Dordogne river, you will see the most spectacular panorama in Périgord. This is the testimony of a rich bygone history and a beautiful natural heritage. It's also an exceptional viewpoint over the Dordogne Valley. You will see the Dordogne's most beautiful villages : Domme, Castelnaud, Beynac, Fayrac, La Roque-Gageac and their castles.

Two ways to visit

The visit has been created for everyone to enjoy. You will particularly appreciate the peace and calm walking through the greenery, by the waterfalls and along the waterways.

Individual visit (1h30):

along the walkways, signs are placed to promote the panorama and underline the beauty of the Dordogne Valley, the geography, the history and the life of its inhabitants. Information also develops around the discovery of nature. Pretty illustrated messages inform our visitors about the main animal and plant species that are likely to be encountered along the walk.

Guided tour (35 min):

in addition to the individual visit. The guided tour takes place around the house and gives the foundations for a better understanding of the site : its history, its evolution, the upkeep of boxwoods and the restoration work which began in 1996.
